

Concept paper
RECRUITMENT FOR RESEARCH FELLOWS
IN TOBACCO CONTROL

By Tobacco Control Research and Knowledge Management Center

Rational: Individual and institutional capacity in Tobacco Control Policy research is urgently required for effective research development and evidence-based policy formation.

Objective: To strengthening researchers in Tobacco Control.

Position: Research Fellow

Job Description: The fellowship period is 6 months with renewal possible with demonstration of excellent performance. Applicants will work as research fellows under close supervision and through intensive interactions with high caliber researchers (so called mentors) from TRC and TRC network. Focuses in tobacco control research will include economic evaluation, burden of diseases, and the generation of information and models of system indicators.

Qualifications

Excellent English skills with at least 3 years experience working in the health sector or at a research institute. Skills with statistical software programs, computer operations, and research project management are also desirable.

Criteria:

- (1) Master's degree or higher, or post doctoral status
- (2) long-term commitment to research career,
- (3) demonstrating leadership potential for Tobacco Control
- (4) no older than 40 years of age,
- (5) with Thai nationality,
- (6) good English proficiency (TOEFL score 550 or 213 by computerized test or IELTS score 6.5).

Work schedule and responsibilities: Full time position of 40 hours a week with flexibility of hours as necessary for completing the required work load and coordination with primary mentor.

Salary: From 20,000 Baht per month, adjusted according to education and experience. (Training Certificates will be issued to fellows who complete the assigned projects and meet the competency standards)

Numbers of positions: 2 positions in this round

Applications must be submitted by e-mail to jintana@trc.or.th